HARNESSING THE POWER OF Nature

To achieve the highest environmental standards in a condo building, Bronte Lakeside has partnered with TRAK International, the North American leader in renewable green energy. TRAK has installed its state-of-the-art Smart Energy System at Bronte Lakeside. Without burning fossil fuels, this innovative smart technology uses the earth's natural energy contained in its crust to heat or cool the building as needed and returns that energy to the ground, making it a truly renewable option.

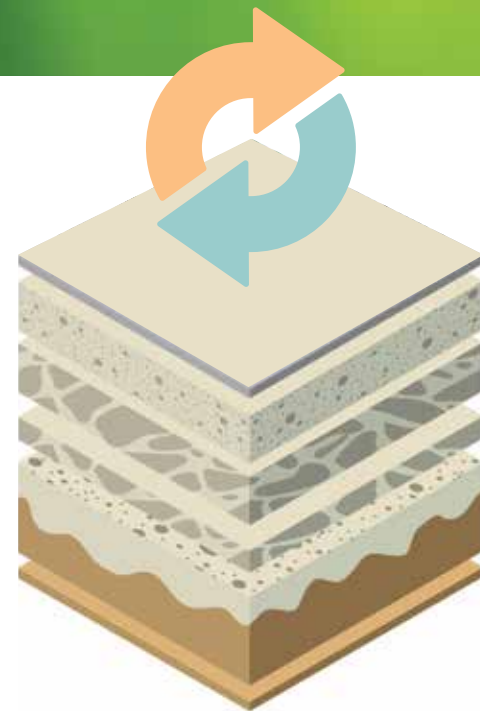

TOP 10 Key Benefits for Living in a Smart Energy Home

GeoExchange utilizes a cutting-edge system of pipes set 140 metres deep into the earth to create a “ground loop” thermal battery using a conductive environmentally safe fluid. The system takes into account the entire process – from the efficacy of the ground loops all the way to the silent in-suite HVAC operation. Add to that the building’s on-site co-generation system, and you have uninterrupted power supply even when the grid goes down. The lights in your suite are always on; the heated and ventilated underground parking remains warm and dry; your freezer stays cold and fresh.

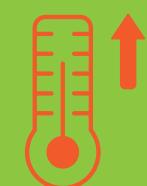

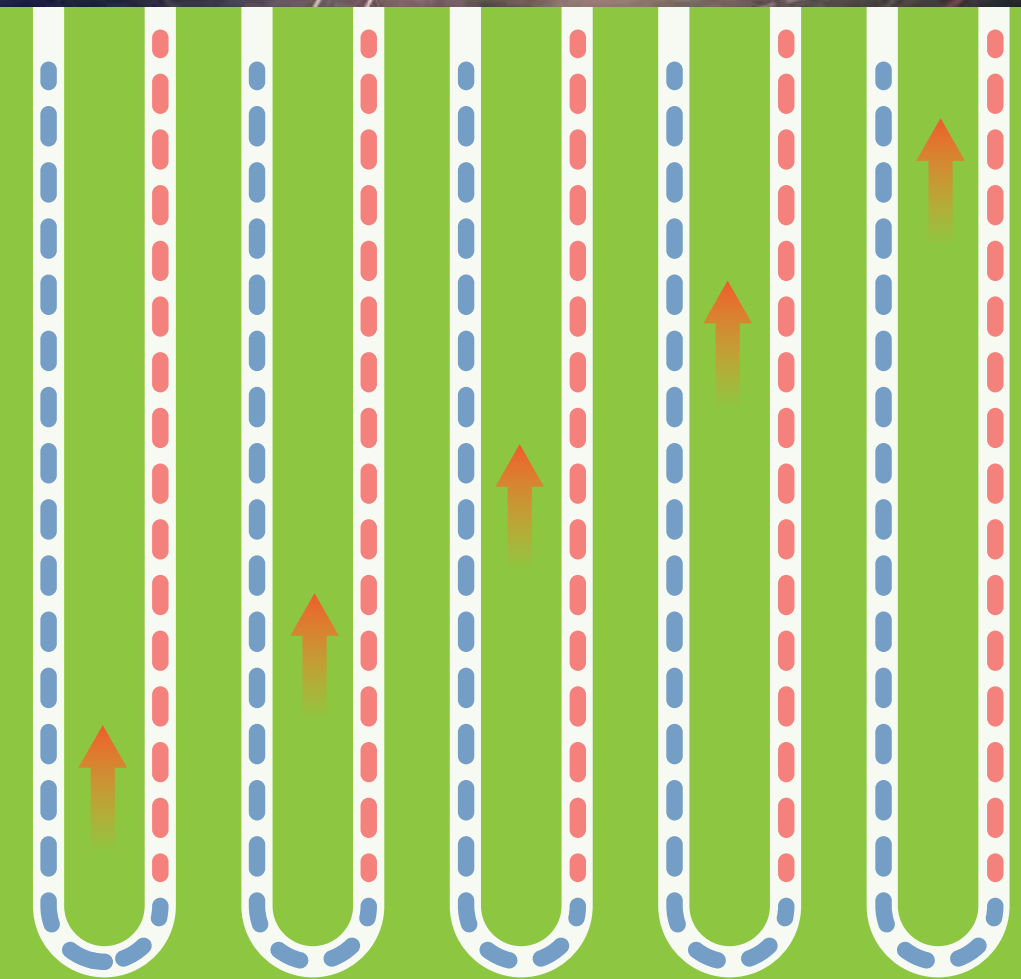

What does all this mean for you, the homeowner at Bronte Lakeside? Not only will you enjoy an unrivaled quality of life and a healthier living environment, but the advanced, energy-efficient technology means lower long-term maintenance costs and higher resale value from day one. In today’s world, you can’t over-emphasize the importance of a building’s air and water quality to your health and well-being. In this respect, Bronte Lakeside is truly unparalleled.
